Law (General) Department.

(with enclosure)

Sir, through the Accountant-General, Madras.

In G.O.No. 3123 Home (Judicial) Department, dated the 14th December 1920, the retention of the court of the Additional District Munsif, Kasargod, was sanctioned for a further period of one year from the 5th January 1921. Under the High Court Notification R.O.C.No.1276/21, dated the 25th April 1921, published on page 987, Part II of the Fort Saint George Gazette, dated the 3rd May 1921, the court was located at Mangalore with effect from the 20th June 1921 and styled the court of the Additional District Munsif, Mangalore. The District Judge requests that the court may be continued for another year.

2. The retention of the court was recommended on the last occasion because the arrears on the files of all the Munsif's Courts in the district amounted on the 1st October 1920 to 2726 original suits, while the arrears on the files of the Kasargod Principal and Additional Courts combined were 579 original suits. In April 1921, when the location of the court at Mangalore effect from the 20th June 1921 was ordered, there was a pendency of 501 original suits on the file of the District Munsif of Mangalore. The arrears on the 1st October 1921 are reported to have been 2473 original suits on the files of all the Munsifs' courts, while the pendency on the files of the Mangalore Principal and Additional courts was 386 original suits and that on the file of the Kasargod Munsif's court was 545. The arrears, though slightly reduced, are still higher than what they were when the court of the Additional District Munsif of Kasargod was first established (viz) 2206 original suits. The congestion in the Kasargod file has also become great and the question of removal of the court back to Kasargod is engaging the attention of the District Judge.

3. A statement is enclosed showing the work done by the several Munsifs' courts in the district during 1920 and the first three quarters of 1921. In the opinion of the Hon'ble the Judges, the outturn of all the courts is fairly well up to the standard except that of the Additional court in 1920; even that court, in the opinion of the District Judge, has shown a good outturn, considering the nature of the suits transferred to it.

4. Having regard to the arrears, the Hon'ble the Judges are of opinion that the retention of the court for another year is necessary to prevent fresh arrears from accumulating. I am accordingly to request that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be pleased to sanction the continuance of the court of the Additional District Munsif of Mangalore with its establishment for another year from the 5th January 1922.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Ag.Deputy Registrar,
Appellate Side.

Law (General) Dept

Subject:- Additional Dt. Munsif, Mangalore [C.No. 4941B] from the Registrar, High Court Rec 3855/21 dated the 21st November 1921 from the Accountant-General, No. Est 23-23820 dated 2-12-1921

A.S. The average annual institutions during the year 1918-1920 in the Courts of Dt. Munsif in the South Kanara Dt were 5042 original Suits and 6689 Small Cause Suits. The average annual disposals of all the Dt. Munsif Courts during the same period were 4,770 original Suits and 6727 Small Cause Suits.

It will be seen from the above figures that the institutions alone provide enough work for all the Courts. There is however an arrears of 2473 original Suits on the files of all the Munsif Courts which will provide work for a Dt. Munsif for about 3 years. In the circumstances the High Court's proposal to retain the additional Dt. Munsif's Court for another year from the 5th January 1922 may be sanctioned.
